

PUBLICATION FEES AND PAYMENT POLICY

Only manuscripts that comply with the requirements and conditions established by the Educational Complex are eligible for publication.

After the manuscript has received a favorable review report and has been approved for publication by the Editorial Board, the author shall, before final publication, pay the publication fee to account No. 900018005018 as follows: AMD 15,000 for manuscripts of up to 15 pages and AMD 1,500 for each additional page.

Payments shall be made by bank transfer only. After making the payment, the author shall submit to the Educational Complex, either in person or via e-mail at githratarakutyunner@gmail.com, the following documents and information:

- proof of payment (receipt or other payment confirmation document);
- passport details;
- public services number (PSN);
- address of registration.

Manuscripts submitted by management, administrative and academic staff of the Educational Complex, postgraduate students, cadets, employees of the Ministry of Internal Affairs, representatives of foreign educational institutions having cooperation agreements with the Educational Complex, and Editorial Board Members are published free of charge. By decision of the Editor-in-Chief, manuscripts submitted by other authors may also be published free of charge.
